

Teaching Objectives for Preschool

Social/Emotional Skills:

Teach key social concepts through art, music, play, stories, circle time, modeling, and discussions

Learning center rules

Learning guidelines for play and interaction in different areas of the facility

Learning good manners

Sitting for increasing length of time in focused activities (circle time, art music, etc)

Learning to sharing with friends

Learning problem solving

Recognizes different emotions

Learning Self Control

Learning to greet friends and family

Working on completion of potty training

Academic Skills:

Teach basic academic concepts through art, music, play, stories, circle time, modeling, and discussions

Challenge children with age appropriate activities

Name Recognition in written forms

Recognition of letters in their name

Introduction of letters

Introduction of numbers

Pre-Math and counting skills

Cutting skills

Prewriting and Tracing Skills

Shapes and Colors

Teaching Objectives for Pre-Kindergarten

Social/Emotional Skills:

Teach key social concepts through art, music, play, stories, circle time, modeling, and discussions

Knows center and class rules and follows them

Takes care of personal needs independently (hand washing, potty)

Uses variety of problem solving skills

Helps Teacher

Sits at circle time or at a table for organized activities for extended periods of time

Helps friends and knows how to share

Greets friends and parents

Knows and uses good manners

Recognizes Emotions in self and others

Has and uses good self-control

Academic Skills:

Teach basic academic concepts through art, music, play, stories, circle time, modeling, and discussions

Challenge children with age appropriate activities

Letter Recognition and Letter Sounds

Shapes and Colors

Math and counting skills

Number Recognition

Cutting Skills

Concepts (big/little, short/long, sizes, etc)

Teach address and phone number

Knowledge of time –Seasons, Months, Days of the week, Time